Formulation of a new national packaging initiative

February 10, 2021

Relevant to Mahindra Logistics

Way Forward

- "Valuable inputs on packaging came from... participants and more such key players would be involved in the formulation of the National Packaging Initiative," it said in a statement.
- It added that e-commerce companies such as Amazon and Flipkart were urged to invest in sustainable packaging as they are one of the biggest users of packaging material.
- It was also pointed out that dangerous and chemical verticals would also need special attention from the packaging perspective.
